FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION

Summer 2012 – Fall 2012 – Spring 2013

CanIL Financial Awards Information

CanIL actively promotes the provision of Scholarships and Bursaries in support of students studying at CanIL.

Scholarships and Bursaries Available To Students

❖ Entrance Scholarship

A scholarship program is available to students beginning the Master of Arts in Linguistics (MALING) or the Master of Applied Linguistics & Exegesis (MLE). Students accepted into these programs are automatically eligible to receive these scholarships upon completion of the Financial Aid Application for their first full time semester of graduate studies (9 semester hours of graduate level courses).

Amount of Award: $3,000

❖ Beyond Price Bursary

Purpose: To provide financial support to students towards the costs of tuition and living expenses. Bursaries are awarded each semester based on financial need, with a preference given to students indicating a desire to work in Bible translation, literacy or related work.

Amount of Award: Based on financial need

Eligibility Requirements

- Undergraduate, MLE, and MALING students taking at least three CanIL courses in a semester from the following list are eligible to apply.
